Observing Art ~ Seeing and Perceiving: We will be looking at and discussing how art is viewed, in this case non-objective paintings that are not intended for representational purposes, and rather consider their physical components (shape, color, texture...). Renaissance artists strived to prove that painting was an intellectual art form. The Latin maxim “ut pictura poesis” ("as is poetry, so is painting”) could be phrased, "concetti dipinti", or painted concerto. There will be a presentation followed by questions and answers. This no cost program will be facilitated by David Ouellette in the Conservatory at River House on Dec. 3 from 9:30 to 11.

Friday

How to Handle Your Kids on Legal Issues: with Megan Wall of SJC Legal Aid on Friday, Nov. 13 from 10 - 11.
